When a student is approved by the School Board to attend a school outside of their home school attendance zone, transportation is not provided

Daycare “Sitter”:

When a student’s home address is located outside the school attendance boundary, but their daycare/sitter address falls within the school attendance boundary, the student is eligible for busing from the sitter location.

This request will remain in effect so long as daycare continues at this location. Please note that if the new sitter address does not fall within the attendance boundary for the school, the student may not be eligible for transportation.

Specialized Program Boundaries (French, Special Education):

When a student is approved by the School Board to attend a special education program or a French Program at a school outside his/her home school attendance boundary, the student is eligible for transportation within the approved program boundary.
